

MY SHADOW

My Shadow and I
Walk together.
Run together.
Do many things together.

We never need to talk
As we walk.
Not in words anyway.

But I understand her.
And she understands
What I want to say.

She's dark
She's silent
And she's full of Fun.

She walks when I
Walk, runs when
I run.

She stays by me always.
In the light of moon and sun.
She dances, she skips, she
Twirls, she trips, does all
That I do, if I ask her to
She turns cartwheels
And somersaults, sits.
Stands and hops.
And when I want her to
Stop, she stops.
