

"Tomorrow Will Come"

From the sun glowing skies
To the diminishing lights .....
When the clouds hide the shining sun,
There lies on untrodden path.

With a distance, to be covered;
With a thought, to be given a shape;
With a will unfulfilled;
With a world, topsy-turvy!!

If thought deeply, there is always a hope,
There is always a better luck,
If not today, might be tomorrow.
Hopes help composing a new-vision to look-in that "Tomorrow will come".

Learning the lessons from yesterday,
Changing a little, for a better tomorrow,
Directs the dazzling future With no fear to lose or fail.

It's a picture bright and clear
When new seeds of hope are planted,
With joys that last forever.
All to be reminded is - a faith
That never fades away.

As a new tomorrow dawns,
Springing new desires,
Cleaning with dreams afresh
Paints the life in brighter shades.
